Dear Madame/Sir:

This letter should be considered an amendment to my 1990 financial disclosure statement recently filed with your office.

The nature of this amendment is to detail a personal loan I made to my 1990 campaign and subsequent partial reimbursement. This information is all listed in my campaign FEC reports, but apparently should be listed with the information on file with your office as well.

Therefore, please add the following to my reported disclosure information:

Part II (Assets and Unearned Income)

Block A Asset & Income Source	Block B Valuation of Asset	Block C Amount of Income
Allard for Congress, loan/repayment. (Original loan of $30,000 @ 10% interest)	$10,000 plus all accrued interest	Principal repaid in 1990 = $20,000

Please let me know should there be any other information you would require, or clarification of the above.

Sincerely,

Wayne

Dear Mr. Anderson,

On April 24, 1991, I submitted my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1990 pursuant to the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended. Upon further review of this, I noted a minor error and wish to correct it at this time.

Specifically, in Part 1 - Earned Income, that amount that I received from the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System was incorrectly stated. It should be $3,985.23 instead of the $3,527.00 that was listed. I hope this will clarify the matter.

With best regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Chairman Stokes,

I am in receipt of your letter of May 6, 1991, concerning deficiencies in my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement as originally file with the Committee on April 24, 1991.

I am enclosing an amended Financial Disclosure Form dated today wherein I explain those deficiencies cited by your staff. My explanations are cited in Part IV - Transactions section of the Statement.

I would like to point out that the two dispositions cited - Mylan Lab common stock and a Grandview, Ohio municipal bond - were both properly listed as sale transactions on my 1989 Financial Disclosure Statement. Further, the acquisition of the Alliance Tax Exempt Account was really not an acquisition at all, but rather a change of name of Money Account held for me by the Advest Company. This account was also listed on my 1989 Statement and the name change was noted on my 1990 Statement.

I trust this will explain those items cited by the Committee.

With best regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

DOUGLAS APPLEGATE

A Change To Note

In response to many requests to simplify Form 2210, IRS has developed a new Short Method to figure the penalty. To see if you can use the short method, read the instructions on this page. Then, if you can use it, complete only Parts I and II below.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 2210 to see if you owe a penalty for underpaying your estimated tax and, if you do, to figure the amount of the penalty.

If you prefer, IRS will figure the penalty for you and send you a bill. But see Lowering Your Penalty below. If you want IRS to figure the penalty for you, leave the penalty line on your return blank; do not file Form 2210.

Lowering Your Penalty

If any of the conditions below applies to you, you may be able to lower the amount of your penalty. But you must complete and attach Form 2210 to your tax return to do so. In the space next to the penalty amount on your tax return, you must write the letter (A, B, or C) that corresponds to any of the following conditions that applies to you.

A. You claim a waiver. See page 1 of the separate instructions.

B. Your income varied during the year and you use the annualized income installment method to figure your required installment payments. See the instructions for line 20.

C. You had Federal income tax withheld from your wages and you treat it as being paid when it was actually withheld (instead of in four equal amounts). See the instructions for line 21.

Short Method

If you made estimated tax payments, you may use the short method only if:

- You paid your estimated tax in four equal amounts; and
- You paid your estimated tax on the due dates.

You may also use the short method if you made no payments at all, or your only credit for payment was due to Federal income tax withholding.

Note: If you made estimated tax payments, the short method will give the precise penalty amount only if your payments were made exactly on the due dates. If any payment was made early, using the short method may cause you to pay a larger penalty than the regular method. If the payment is only a few days early, the difference will generally be small.

Although line 17 of the short method requires a five-place decimal computation, it will relieve you of making the more complicated computations under the regular method.

Do not use the short method if you made any of your estimated tax payments late.

You must use the regular method if B or C under Lowering Your Penalty applies. But if A applies, and you meet the conditions above, you may use the short method.

Regular Method

Use the regular method to figure the penalty if you did not pay your estimated tax payments on the due dates or in four equal amounts. To use the regular method, complete Part I below and Part III on the back.

Part I Required Annual Payment — All filers must complete this part.

14	Enter the total amount, if any, of estimated tax payments you made.	14

U.S. House of Representatives COMMITTEE ON STANDARDS OF
OFFICIAL CONDUCT
Washington, DC 20515

February 25, 1987

The Honorable Cass Ballenger
United States House of Representatives
116 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Colleague:

This is in response to your letter of January 16, 1987, requesting the advice of this Committee regarding the propriety of your receipt of certain compensation from Plastic Packaging, Inc. Your correspondence elaborates on information provided in an earlier meeting with Committee Counsel Mark Davis.

You explain that you served as President of Plastic Packaging, Inc., from its founding in 1956 until your election to the House of Representatives. While you remain the majority stockholder and Chairman of the Board, you no longer have day-to-day operating responsibilities. In lieu of the salary previously paid to you, Plastic Packaging, Inc., intends to pay you $20,000 per year for as much as 400 hours of consulting services on implementation of corporate policy decisions. You further explain that Plastics Packaging, Inc., is your principal family investment, and you view it important to remain associated with the business to assure that your investment is protected.

The provision implicated by your inquiry is House Rule XLVII, which limits the amount of outside earned income which a Member of the House of Representatives may receive in a calendar year to 30 percent of the Member's aggregate yearly congressional salary. As provided in the Rule, the term "outside earned income" means "wages, salaries, professional fees, honorariums, and other amounts ... received as compensation for personal services actually rendered." Several exemptions are noted, however. Clause 3(d)(4) of Rules XLVII specifically states that outside earned income does not include-- > in the case of a Member engaged in a trade or business in which the Member or his family holds a controlling interest and in which both personal services and capital are income-producing factors, any amount received > by such Member so long as the personal services actually rendered by the Member in the trade or business do not generate a significant amount of income.

The Committee is of the opinion that the services you will be performing for Plastic Packaging, Inc., and compensation in the amount specified, fall within the stated exemption. The purpose of the exemption, as stated by the Commission on Administrative Review of the 95th Congress, is to enable Members to protect their interest in a family business. (See, House Document 95-73, p. 11; see also, Advisory Opinion No. 13, House Select Committee on Ethics, 95th Congress.) Further evidence of the fact that your efforts are aimed at preserving your equity, rather than generating a significant amount of income, is the limited time you plan to devote to the business. The Committee also notes that the amount of compensation you will be receiving from the corporation is substantially less than that reported for prior years on the Financial Disclosure Statement which you filed as a candidate.

While this compensation will not be counted as outside earned income for the purposes of the limitation in Rule XLVII, please note that it still must be reported on the Financial Disclosure Statement you are required to file as a Member of the House of Representatives by May 15th of each year. For purposes of clarity, we suggest that you note on the Statement that this income is from a family business and exempt from application of Rule XLVII.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact the Committee staff at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Julian C. Dixon
Chairman

February 8, 1990

The Honorable Tony P. Hall
U.S. States House of Representatives
2448 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Colleague:

This responds to your letter of January 25, 1990, requesting an advisory opinion from the Committee with respect to a trip your wife is planning to take with several other congressional wives to Uganda from February 10-18, 1990, at the request of Mrs. Janet Museveni, the wife of Ugandan President Yoweri Museveni. The invitation, a copy of which you enclosed with your letter, indicates that the purpose of this visit is for the group to see firsthand the orphan problems of that country and then to assist the Fellowship Foundation and World Vision in trying to ease conditions for these children by their testimony in this country. The invitation further indicates that all expenses for this trip would be jointly paid by the Fellowship Foundation and World Vision, both nonprofit organizations.

It is the responsibility of a traveling Member, employee, or spouse to determine whether the sponsor of a trip of this kind is a foreign government or agent thereof, or acting on behalf of a foreign government. The invitation indicates that the sponsors of this trip, Fellowship Foundation and World Vision, are nonprofit organizations. Therefore, for purposes of this advisory opinion letter, your wife's travel expenses are deemed not to be subject to the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (5 U.S.C. §7342).

The applicable House rule is Rule XLIII, clause 4, which, effective January 1, 1990, provides that a Member, officer, or employee of the House shall not accept in any calendar year gifts aggregating more than "minimal value," directly or indirectly, from any source other than a relative. In Advisory Opinion No. 9, the Select Committee on Ethics of the 95th Congress determined that gifts to a spouse or dependent of a Member are considered indirect gifts to the Member, unless such gift is prompted by some consideration unrelated to the recipient's relationship to the Member.

This Committee has recognized an exception to the gift rule for individuals who "substantially participate" in an event. The Select Committee on Ethics of the 95th Congress, in Advisory Opinion No. 2, stated that:

> . . . necessary expenses should not be considered to be a "gift" to a participating individual who renders personal services sufficient to constitute "equal consideration" for the expenses provided by the sponsoring organization.

The opinion goes on to point out that:

> . . . the services rendered must be more than perfunctory in nature to constitute equal consideration for the expenses involved. For example, addressing an audience at an event or engaging in discussion seminars would be considered substantial participation sufficient to constitute "equal consideration," while simply visiting a specific site or location as part of a "fact-finding tour" would probably not be viewed as "equal consideration" for expenses paid by a sponsoring organization.

Thus, if you determine that this trip is being offered to your wife totally independent of her relationship with you, or if your wife is performing services for the sponsors of the trip which constitute equal consideration for the travel provided, then acceptance of necessary expenses would not be deemed a gift for the purposes of House Rule XLIII, clause 4.

Section 805(a)(1) of the Ethics Reform Act of 1989 sets a ceiling on the expenses which will normally be deemed necessary for privately paid travel. In the case of foreign travel, a maximum of seven consecutive days (excluding travel days) may be accepted without prior written approval from the Committee. Your wife's proposed travel appears consistent with this limit.

Any such expenses incurred by your wife for travel which is not totally independent of her relationship with you, and which aggregate $250 or more in value from a single source, must be disclosed as "reimbursements" on the Financial Disclosure

Statement you file pursuant to the Ethics in Government Act of 1978. The Ethics Reform Act requires reporting not only the identity of the source of the travel but also a brief description, including a travel itinerary, dates, and nature of expenses provided.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact the Committee staff at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Julian C. Dixon
Chairman

Dear Mr. Anderson:

I have filed my 1990 financial disclosure statement with your office on May 15, 1991. In the course of preparing my 1990 statement, I came across a piece of property that was not shown the value.

The 25 percent interest in 25 acres on W. Flamingo Rd., Clark County, Nevada should be categorized in the D column.

Please include this letter in my 1990 financial disclosure statement.

Sincerely,

James H Bilbray

RE: Amendment, Financial Disclosure Statement
For Calendar Year 1990

Please correct my financial disclosure statement Parts II and III -- Assets and "Unearned" Income Sheet, Page A-2(a), to reflect the following:

Line 4, Block A, (Asset and/or Income Source), Brewster Angus Farm, Block B (Valuation of Asset), Category of Value should be checked Category F ($250,001-$500,000).

In preparing this report Category G was incorrectly checked. Brewster Angus Farm includes livestock, equipment and 500 acres of grassland. Value does not justify Category G.

Dear Colleague:

This responds to your letter of January 7, 1990, in which you request the Committee's advice regarding your status as a tenured faculty member at Stanford University. You explain that you were appointed to the Stanford Law School Faculty in 1983 and promoted to full professor with tenure in 1987. You further explain that upon election to Congress in 1988 you were granted a two-year leave-of-absence from teaching, but that unless you resume some teaching, you will forfeit your tenure and your right to continue owning a home on university property. You and your Dean have proposed a part-time teaching schedule in which most of your classes would be scheduled for Sunday morning, and your salary would be less than half the full-time teaching salary.

During 1990 your outside earned income from all sources is limited to thirty percent of your 1989 congressional salary, or $26,850. In 1991, this limit will be 15 percent of the congressional salary at the time. In addition, section 502 of The Ethics Reform Act of 1989 (P.L. 100-194) provides that, beginning January 1, 1991, you may not "receive compensation for teaching, without the prior notification and approval" of this Committee.

In your case, it is obvious that the teaching opportunity is wholly unrelated to your status as a Member of Congress because you were tenured prior to your election to Congress. Secondly, the modest schedule that you propose to continue teaching would clearly not interfere or conflict with your representational and legislative duties as a Member of Congress, and the university compensation level carries no hint that you would be paid by Stanford for anything other than teaching. Accordingly, the Committee gives its approval to your proposed teaching arrangement with the Stanford University Law School. This letter will constitute the Committee's approval of the arrangement for the purposes of section 502 of the Ethics Reform Act for as long as you continue your teaching relationship with Stanford.

If you or the Law School's officials have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact the Committee staff at (202) 225-7103.

Sincerely,

Julian C. Dixon
Chairman

Dear Donn:

I am enclosing an amended Financial Disclosure form for 1990, due to new information I received in my office following the required filing date of May 15, 1991.

On May 24, 1991 I received a letter dated May 17, 1991 from the Centre for Legislative Exchange listing food and local transportation expenses for Members of the Aviation Subcommittee that went on an official trip to Ottowa, Canada last December to discuss a U.S. - Canadian "open skies" agreement. As per the Ethics regulations, these expenses are required to be disclosed under "Reimbursements." Therefore, I am submitting an amended form.

Please note that the only change made to my FD form is regarding these reimbursed expenses. I appreciate your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Jerry F. Costello

Dear Donn:

Dear Dave:

Pursuant to your May 22 letter, I have amended my Financial Disclosure Statement to reflect the following changes:

1. The type of income listed for JT Investments under Part I is "Real Estate Commissions".

2. The asset of Genesis Electronics under Part II was deleted since both the assets and income were less than the reportable amounts.

Also, I would estimate the value of the asset of JT Investments (for reporting under Part II) at less than $1,001. As such, I have not amended this entry.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

John T. Doolittle
